

Health Screening Questionnaire

We care about the safety and wellbeing of all our employees, contractor partners and visitors who work or travel to Rio Tinto sites and office. As part of our response to the evolving coronavirus situation, we are taking steps across the business to minimize potential transmission and mitigate the impact of the outbreak.

All employees, contractors or visitors to any Rio Tinto facilities are required to respond to the following questions if:

1. New to site.
2. Returning from extended absence beyond normally scheduled days away, including travel from another country or working remotely.
3. Recently have felt unwell with COVID-19 symptoms.

Or, as determined by security or management.

Entry will be denied if the person refuses to respond to the questionnaire.
